

One Day

One day I'll find you one day you'll be mine One day I'll put these tears behind me one day the gods will be kind cuz the odds are they can't defeat me and my heart still rules my mind and although it's most unlikely my search won't cease till I find you

One day
One day
One day
One day

One day you'll find me one day you'll seek and find you will remember to remind me of the one day we knew we'd find one day the odds are I'll find you one day our paths will intertwine one day we'll put the old behind us and find new one day the gods will be kind

One day
One day soon
One day
the other side of the moon
One day
One day soon
One day
the other side of the moon
